

International Teaching Week

Sts Cyril and Methodius Faculty of Theology, Palacký University

Address: Univerzitní 22

Room: Aula (2nd floor)

	9:00-10:30	11:00-12:30	14:00-15:30	16:00-17:30
Monday Oct 18	Can Zeyrek: "New Despotisms" and the Autocracy on the Example of Turkey	Peter McCormick: Engaging Ethically with the Very Poor	Marek Lis: Fake News and New Media
Tuesday Oct 19	Piotr Drag/ Katarzyna Drag / Michal Drozd: Necessity of Ethical Security in Communication	Piotr Drag/ Katarzyna Drag / Michal Drozd: Intercultural Communication: The Need for Development of Competences	Marek Lis: Cinema and Pedophilia: Between Accusations and Therapy
Wednesday Oct 20	Piotr Drag/ Katarzyna Drag / Michal Drozd: 25 years later, "Schindler's List" and its impact on the city of Krakow	Can Zeyrek: The Inclusion of Islamic-Fundamentalist Logic of Rule in Democratic Types of Rule: From Regime Transformation to Regime Change and "Brotherhoodization" in Turkey	Marek Lis: Jesus in Contemporary Cinema
Thursday Oct 21	Marian Machinek: Ars Moriendi. A contribution to the philosophy and theology of the death	Ştefan Iloaie: Media Communication Today. An Orthodox Point of View	Dejan Donev: Bioethical Journalism - Need or Necessity !?	Machinek / Iloaie / Donev: Individual consultations
Friday Oct 22	Machinek, Iloaie, Donev: Panel discussion "How to communicate ethical topics today? (family, media, social work, school)"	Vicini: Neuroscience and Freedom	Virt: Ethical Decision Making in the European Institutions

WWW.CMTF.UPOL.CZ/EN

Sts Cyril and Methodius Faculty of Theology

Palacký University Olomouc

Biannual Conference of BCE 2021

THE BRAIN AND MORALITY

How much morality does the brain allow?

Sts Cyril and Methodius Faculty of theology,
Palacký University Univerzitní 22 779 00 Olomouc

Bioethicists
in Central Europe

Friday, October 22nd, 2021

From 16.00 Coffee

Public lectures and discussion

17.00-17.10 Welcome

17.10-17.40 Neuroscience and Theological Bioethics: An Interdisciplinary Dialogue

Andrea Vicini / School of Theology and Ministry, Boston College

17.40-18.00 Discussion

18.00-18.15 Break

1st Topic unit: How can behaviour be influenced? On the plasticity of the brain

18.15-18.45 Influencing the Human Brain. Ethical Aspects and Social Implications

Elisabeth Hildt / Centre for the Study of Ethics, Illinois Institute of Technology

18.45-19.00 Response by Sigrid Müller / Faculty of Catholic Theology, University of Vienna

19.00-19.30 Discussion

20.00 Dinner

Saturday, October 23rd, 2021

From 08.00 Breakfast

Public lectures and discussion

2nd Topic unit: What limits does the brain set for the ability to act morally?

09.00-09.30 What can neurosciences tell? Brain injuries and their impact on behavior,

Petr Hlušík / Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, Palacký University of Olomouc

09.30-09.45 Response by Angelika Walser / Faculty of Catholic Theology, University of Salzburg

09.45-10.30 Discussion

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

Panel discussion

11.00-12.30 The Brain, Determinism, and Freedom in the Interdisciplinary Discourse

Ivo Čermák / Faculty of Social Studies, Masaryk University

Borut Škodlar / Faculty of Medicine, University of Ljubljana,

Walter Schaupp / Faculty of Catholic Theology, University of Graz

13.00 Lunch

BCE-internal part

15.00-16.40 Presentation of research projects

16.40-17.00 Break

17.00-17.30 General assembly

17.30-18.00 Break

18.00 Holy Mass

19.00 Dinner

Sts Cyril and Methodius
Faculty of Theology

Palacký University
Olomouc