

Ethics and Culture in Media Communication

Room Aula	8:30 — 9:30	9:50 — 10:50	11:10 — 12:10
Monday Nov 7 th	Paulina Sajna-Kosobucka: BBC and CNN in the perspective of media convergence - information architecture on websites and social media	Radoslaw Sajna-Kunowsky: Media ethics, politics and religion in modern Poland	Rasool Akbari: Digital Islam: The Hypermediation of Religion in Iran during COVID 19
Tuesday Nov 8 th	Damian Guzek: Digital papacy: Types of authority in the digital world	Rasool Akbari: Virtue Cultivation in Religious Pedagogy: Room for Roomi in Islamic Education	Radoslaw Sajna-Kunowsky: Internet, genealogy and genetics: another new media revolution
Wednesday Nov 9 th	Risto Solunchev: The Idea of Revolution in the Contemporary Pop-Culture: Absolute Democracy as a Temptation	Dejan Donev: The two-way link between ethics and media	Damian Guzek: Catholic communities online
Thursday Nov 10 th	Paromita Bose: Caste Politics in the Cultural Realm: Drawing and Reading Discrimination	Damian Guzek: Media resources in terms of dogmatic breakthroughs of the Church	Monika Kopytowska: International journalism: contemporary trends and cases
Friday Nov 11 th	Risto Solunchev: Absolute Democracy and Phenomenology of Revolution	Dejan Donev: Crisis of the journalist as a moral subject	Veronika Müllerová / Michaela Vetešková: Catholic Church communication strategy: new paradigm

For more information, contact andrea.spickova@upol.cz

WWW.CMTF.UPOL.CZ/EN

Sts Cyril and Methodius
Faculty of Theology

Palacký University
Olomouc