

An inclusive campus is an environment of colleges and universities that is welcome and accessible to everyone. Also for people with an intellectual disability. How do you manage that?

Goal?

Exchanging knowledge, ideas and experiences to further the inclusion of people with an intellectual disability.

Venue?

Hogeschool Utrecht, at Utrecht Science Park.
Padualaan 101, Utrecht.

Dates?

Friday June 7, 2019 (9:30-16:30. Field visits start at 13:30)
Saturday June 8, 2019 (9:30-15:30).

For whom?

Anyone interested, experienced or involved in including people with an intellectual disability at the campus: work placement, teaching activities, being a student, buddy systems, accessibility, management systems to support these endeavours.

You want to organize a workshop or presentation?

Register before May 1 2019 by visiting the website below.

Attending the conference?

Free (€0)

Learn more about the program and register at:

<https://www.onderzoek.hu.nl/Projecten/Inclusive-Campus-Life-ICLife>